

About the Institute

The Indian Institute of Materials Management (IIMM) is the India's only professionally recognized body of Materials and Supply Chain Management. The Institute through its membership and regional Branches and Chapters all over the country represents a wide spectrum of professionals engaged in various facets of Materials and Supply Chain Management.

Today IIMM has 45 Branches and 19 Chapters all over India, with HQ and Educational Wing at Mumbai. IIMM has over 9,000 Members comprising of professionals engaged in Materials Management functions in public and private sector undertakings, Govt. organizations, SSI Units and students of educational courses conducted by the Institute. It is also a Charter Member of International Federation of Purchasing & Materials Management.(IFPMM) Atlanta, USA which has its members in over 39 countries.

IIMM is registered under the Societies Registration Act (XI of 1960) and the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950.

Membership

IIMM offers membership to professionals and businesses throughout India. Becoming a member of the institute demonstrates high standards and commitment to excellence in the field of Supply Chain Management and provides professionals with access to a vibrant community and a range of benefits.

Individual Membership

The unique membership package includes...

Member directory - Create your own profile on the member directory and network with other supply chain professionals around the country.

Exclusive forums - Discuss your experiences and share advice with other members on the exclusive members supply chain forum through Free professional lectures from experts in the field.

Newsletter - Monthly members newsletter with all of the latest supply chain management and materials management news.

Materials Manager Review (MMR). A monthly magazine free for members which contains professional articles on Materials and Supply Chain Management and the latest trends and best practices in the field contributed by academicians and Industry experts.

Invitation and registration discounts to attend professional conferences conducted by IIMM including SCALE, NATCOM, etc., where participants share knowledge, best practices, and the latest cost-saving, performance-enhancing techniques.

Network with colleagues at your local branch of IIMM and rub shoulders with top CPOs and CEOs in the special forums created by the Branch Executive Committee.

Enrolling as an IIMM Member offers various opportunities for displaying the knowledge in various several professional contests including debates, quizzes, IIMM Idol, essay writing competition and Best Materials Manager Contest, which are highly rated for professional excellence.

IIMM has different membership grades depending upon the performance and experience of individuals. These include Fellow Member, Distinguish Member, which are being considered by the Government of India for Member Certification program and Vendor Certifying programs.

Being a member of IIMM is an industry recognition among the functionaries of Materials Management and Supply Chain Management.

Corporate Membership

Become a corporate member and receive a range of benefits to both support and promote your business in the supply chain sector across the country. The member packages include:

Business directory - Create a business profile on the business directory to promote your company globally to other members and demonstrate your commitment to supply chain excellence.

Free job advertising - Advertise your job vacancies to members.

Free individual membership for up to 2 employees and get all the benefits of individual membership listed above.

Newsletter - Monthly members newsletter with all of the latest supply chain management and materials management news.

Utilize IIMM Education and Consulting at discounted rates.

Events - Participate in Industry specific programs and MSME events.

For more information on becoming a member contact:

C. Subbkrishna
National President
Np.iimm@yahoo.com